OUR MISSION

Intercultural Family Services, Inc. (IFS) is a community-driven nonprofit organization committed to enhancing the quality of life for diverse individuals and families throughout the Philadelphia region. Since our founding in 1979, we have been providing essential services, including behavioral health, early childhood education, youth development, and family empowerment programs.

We are dedicated to stabilizing, strengthening, and uniting families, individuals, and diverse communities. Through an array of culturally responsive human services and collaborations with public and private partners, we work to create lasting positive impacts.

Peer2You is an IFS flagship program funded by *PCCD Grant #39867. It is dedicated to addressing the multifaceted challenges surrounding gun violence and its impact on our youth and communities. Through mentorship, advocacy, and education, Peer2You embodies the core mission of IFS: stabilizing, strengthening, and uniting families and communities.

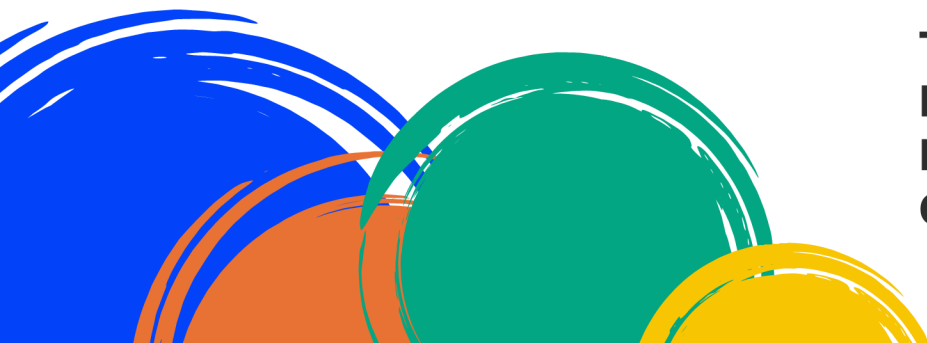

HOW DO EVENTS LIKE THIS SUPPORT OUR MISSION?

Intercultural Family Services, Inc. serves as a vital lifeline for diverse families and individuals facing life's most difficult challenges. Your sponsorship fuels essential programs that provide behavioral health counseling, youth mentorship, family education, and early intervention services to under-resourced communities. These initiatives go beyond meeting immediate needs—they equip individuals with the tools to build self-reliance, resilience, and lasting stability.

By partnering with IFS through events like this, you're doing more than supporting programs—you're standing with survivors, uplifting families, and contributing to the creation of safer, healthier neighborhoods.

TOGETHER, WE TRANSFORM AWARENESS
INTO ACTION AND
DRIVE MEASURABLE CHANGING.

IFS HOPE Symposium on Gun Violence Prevention stands as a bold initiative under the Peer2You umbrella. Scheduled for June 11, 2025 in Philadelphia, the HOPE Symposium is more than an event—it's a movement. Bringing together leaders, policymakers, educators, social workers, survivors, and community advocates, the symposium will tackle the complex issue of gun violence head-on.

The symposium will focus on data-driven research, real-life stories, and innovative strategies, featuring an expert-led panel discussion in the morning, a lunch time Fireside Chat with Philadelphia leaders, and interactive breakout sessions to inspire collaboration and foster a plan to move forward. Participants will leave equipped with the tools, knowledge, and partnerships necessary to create sustainable solutions within their communities.

The HOPE Symposium reflects the heart of Peer2You's mission and reinforces IFS's commitment to fostering safer neighborhoods and brighter futures for all.
